Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of Temagami First Nation

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Temagami First Nation, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2012, and the statements of operations, changes in net financial assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Temagami First Nation as at March 31, 2012 and the results of its operations, changes in net financial assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards.

Temagami First Nation Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

March 31, 2012

Accounting Principles	The financial statements of the Temagami First Nation ("TFN") are the representation of management prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles as prescribed by the Canadian public sector accounting standards.
Method of Accounting	Sources of financing and expenditures are reported on the accrual basis of accounting. The accrual basis of accounting recognizes revenues as they become available and measurable; expenditures are recognized as they are incurred and measurable as a result of receipt of goods or services and the creation of a legal obligation to pay.
Basis of Consolidation	TFN reporting entity consolidates the assets, liabilities and results of operations for TFN government and all related entities which are accountable to TFN and are either owned or controlled by TFN, including the Casino Rama Fund, which is administered by TFN.
Cash and Cash Equivalents	Cash and cash equivalents includes cash on hand, current bank accounts and short-term deposits, if any, with terms to maturity of less than 90 days.
Investments	Investments are recorded at lower of cost or market value.
Funds Held in Trust by AANDC	Band funds held in trust by Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada arise from monies derived from capital or revenue sources as outlined in Section 62 of the Indian Act. These funds are held in trust in the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Government of Canada (AANDC) and are subject to audit by the Office of the Auditor General of Canada. The management of these funds is primarily governed by Sections 63 to 69 of the Indian Act.

Temagami First Nation Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

March 31, 2012

Tangible Capital Assets Tangible capital assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Cost includes all costs attributable to acquisition or construction of the tangible capital asset including but not limited to transportation costs, installation costs, design and engineering fees, legal fees and site preparation costs. Contributed capital assets are recorded at fair value at the time of the donation, with a corresponding amount recorded as revenue, when fair value can be reasonably estimated. Amortization is recorded on a straight-line basis over the estimated life of the tangible capital asset commencing in the year the asset is available for productive use as follows:

Buildings	25 to 50 years
Vehicles	3 to 20 years
Machinery and equipment	3 to 10 years
Land improvements	7 to 40 years
Infrastructure	15 to 75 years
IT equipment	2 to 4 years

Reserves and Reserve Funds Certain amounts as approved by TFN's Chief and Council, are set aside for future purposes. Transfers to and from reserves and reserve funds are an adjustment to the respective reserve when approved.

Revenue Recognition Revenue is recognized as it is received or becomes receivable under the terms of applicable contribution agreements. Certain government funding received but not expended is reported as deferred revenue on the Statement of Financial Position, depending on the nature of the funding agreements.

All other revenue is recorded as the applicable service is provided and collection is reasonably assured.

Use of Estimates The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from management's best estimates as additional information becomes available in the future. Significant items subject to such estimates include the useful lives of tangible capital assets.
